The newspapers are making themselves almost ridiculous in the way they allow these X-dispensary fellows to use up their space. Many columns of stuff have been published in the last few weeks and yet the thing goes on.

The day will come when the business men of Bamberg will see their business grow smaller and the wealth of the town decrease, unless they increase the enterprises of the town.

Barnwell Quarterly Conference.

The fourth quarterly conference of the Barnwell circuit was held at Mizpah church, Saturday, October 28th, Presiding Elder H. B. Brown presiding.

Volcanic Eruptions.

Are grand, but skin eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, cures them; also Old, Running and Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, Warts, Bruises, Burns, Chapped Hands, Scalds, Chilblains.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich. tells how such a slave was made free.

Land for Sale.

One hundred and eighty-eight acres of fine farming land, situated three miles from Bamberg, one-half cleared, balance timber land. Will be sold at a bargain and on easy terms.

BARNWELL BAPTISTS.

Forty-third Annual Session of the Association, at St. John's Baptist Church.

This Association met in its forty-third annual session at St. John's Baptist church on Thursday, October 19th, and continued its meetings until Sunday.

The St. John's church was organized in 1830. It is situated in the lower edge of Bamberg county, twenty miles from Bamberg and twenty from Varnville on the Port Royal road beyond.

Pastor E. W. Peoples is highly admired by the brethren at St. John's as well as at Carter's Ford, Hampton, Brunson and his other churches.

The introductory sermon was preached at twelve o'clock by Rev. A. P. Turner, who took as his text, John 9: 4, and delivered an interesting and practical sermon on Christian activity.

The officers were elected, as follows: W. D. Rice, moderator; W. D. McMillan, clerk; J. A. Jenkins, treasurer—same as last year, and an excellent lot of officers they are.

After the sermon the delegates were enrolled. The attendance was good; nearly every church was represented, and some of the more distant churches had present as many as four or five members to represent them.

On Friday morning, after devotional exercises, the Rev. W. E. Johnson read the report on education.

Bro. Johnson followed his report with a strong speech. It soon became apparent that this was one of the most live subjects which the Association would discuss.

After Bro. Johnson, I delivered myself of an address for Furman University. After which a song was sung to rest the brethren and sisters, and Bro. Wm. Haynsworth spoke.

Prof. F. N. K. Bailey followed in an address in which he contended that all which pertained to the education of the children of Baptist people was pertinent in a Baptist Association.

Senator S. G. Mayfield spoke. He granted that much that the report contained was true, but claims that the U. S. government gives a good proportion of money for the sustenance of one of the State schools.

Bro. Johnson made a warm speech of rebuffal of some data used by Bro. Mayfield. Prof. Bailey spoke and brought out the fact that if the Clemson gano tax was turned into the common schools it would help ten times as many farmers as at present.

Our esteemed Baptist brother, Congressman W. J. Talbert, was called out and made a capital, humorous speech, in which a most interesting feature was the address with which he walked the wire on the general subject of education, without falling against either the Scylla or the Charybdis of the premises.

Bro. A. H. Patterson, a probable candidate for governor in the next primary, demanded the re-reading of the report. It was read by Chairman Johnson, of the committee of education. Mr. Patterson, who is also a member of the board of trustees of Clemson, spoke. He said that if a Baptist wished to educate his boy for the ministry he should send him to Furman; if for business to Clemson. So it appears that very intelligent gentlemen still think it is a theological college we are running at Greenville.

Through America in Pictures.

An important pictorial feature will shortly begin in The Ladies Home Journal in a series to be called "Through Picturesque America: In 100 Pictures."

The proposition to strike out this clause was discussed at some length, Chairman Johnson defending it and Senator Mayfield and Patterson condemning it. On the vote being put it was found that Chairman Johnson was sustained by a majority of at least three to one.

As a matter of fact the passage of the above resolution may be taking matters too far; it is, no doubt, true that the State should sustain the plant and mechanical apparatus needed at each of the numerous State schools, but the people will not long consent to remain a party to the free tuition game which is being played, and if "administration" will not correct, "administration" will happen on a day of reckoning.

Dr. Bailey spoke well, and made a collection. Many other matters remained to come up on Saturday, but we spent Saturday at the Colleton Association.

Mr. Michael Curtain Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for November contains Stephen Crane's new story, "West Point and Volunteer," which is perhaps the best thing he has done since "The Red Badge of Courage."

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it.

Mr. W. H. Carter died at his home in Three Mile Township last night. Apoplexy was the cause of his death, and he was taken sick a few hours before. He was about forty years, and leaves several children. He will be buried this afternoon at the Jones burying ground near Carter's Ford.

Dr. H. H. Haden, Summit, Ala., says, "I think Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a splendid medicine. I prescribe it, and my confidence in it grows with continued use. It digests what you eat and quickly cures dyspepsia and indigestion."—Bamberg Pharmacy.

Wearily women need an occasional dose of Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine to Strengthen their Nerves and Invigorate their Systems. Sold by Dr. J. E. Black.

J. D. Bridges, Editor "Democrat," Lancaster, N. H., says, "My Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy for croup I ever used." Immediately relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, pneumonia, bronchitis, gripe and all throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption.—Bamberg Pharmacy.

Robert Green, ex-pugilist, has been licensed to preach by the Calvary Baptist Church, Shawmut avenue, Boston, and is going to enter the Baptist Seminary at Lynchburg. After being graduated from it, he will return to Boston to be ordained.

"I wouldn't be without DeWitt's White Hazel Salve for any consideration," writes Thos. B. Rhodes, Centerville, O. Infallible for cuts, burns and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits.—Bamberg Pharmacy.

Temporary Derangement of Digestion, through overwork, worry or emotional excitement, are quickly rectified by Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine. Sold by Dr. J. E. Black.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Knowing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be a medicine of great worth and merit and especially valuable for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, we will hereafter warrant every bottle bought of us and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of a 25 or 50 cent bottle.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

A Philadelphia paper says: "Flirting in church will not be tolerated by Rev. Charles Mitchell, pastor of the little flock of Methodist Protestants who worship in the old Third Presbyterian building, at Twelfth and Upland streets, Chester. He thought he saw young George Farrell at this diversion during services Sunday night and remonstrated. Then Farrell grew angry and refused to comply with the pastor's request to leave. Pastor Mitchell had Farrell up in the Mayor's court as the result of the affair and the young man was fined $3.30 for disturbing a religious meeting."

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtain Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse.
